To,

The Director (HR),

Sub: - Delay in settlement of BSNL Retired Employees claims.

Respected Madam,

It is constrained to bring to your kind notice that the Retired BSNL Employees are facing very much difficulties to settle their claims at various level District/Circle, the Retired Employees who were Senior Citizens they can't move one place to other and in many cases the children's are not supporting them, than they themselves become compulsory to pursue their claims i.e. Medical, Pension etc. But the Circle/District level offices are not giving priority to their grievances and at the least they are not treating them the retired employees belongs to our Department.

It is not necessary to bring your kind notice that the Senior Citizens/Retired Employees sacrificed their lives to retain this DoT/BSNL a strong and No 1 Service oriented Department. But now they are getting step mother treatment in the same Department.

Therefore, I request you Madam kindly form a Grievances Cell at corporate office for Retired Employees issues to pursue and to settle their claims as early as possible.

With regards

Yours sincerely,

(K. Jayaprakash)
