BSNL announces reduction in Roaming Tariff by 75%

Telecom major, Bharat Sanchar Nigam Limited has announced reduction in roaming tariff by 75% with effect from 01.05.2015 for its prepaid & post paid mobile services. The decision has come in the wake of telecommunication tariff order issued by TRAI.

Shri N.K.Gupta, Director (CM), BSNL Board told "We have reduced our tariff by 40% for incoming calls, 23% for STD calls & 20% for local calls, during roaming. The SMS tariff has been reduced by 75% both for local and national SMS. Now local SMS will cost only 25 Paise per SMS and national SMS will be charged @ 38 paise. For post-paid customers local & national both SMS will be charged @ 25 paise during roaming. He further said that our tariff is most competitive & transparent in the industry".

"He added that we have already announced FREE unlimited calling from BSNL Land line to any landline or mobile of any operator across India during 9PM to 7AM with effect from 01.05.2015. We have the largest market share of landline connections in the country and therefore crores of BSNL customers would be benefited with this offer".
